Today's Liturgy

Gospel: Fr. Damien Dougherty, O.F.M.

Jesus consumes the banquet within the context of the history and liturgy of Judaism and, towards the end of the meal, he takes a portion of food, dips it in the gravy and hands it to Judas. Within the customs of the time, this gesture was an act of esteem from the head of the table to honor the friend or illustrious guest who had been invited to the meal. On Jesus' part the offer of the morsel is a gift of love to Judas to confirm the choice the Master had made by calling him to the apostolate along with the other disciples. Rather than perceiving its profound significance, Judas takes the immediate opportunity to accomplish the betrayal he has already begun.

John, who is always attentive to details and their meaning, sees something deeper in the time when Judas chose to leave the upper room. In contrast to the darkness of the obscure night of treachery and sin, "the true light which enlightens everyone" (John 1,9) manifests the infinite love of God and reveals his own glory as the Word made flesh.

This very juncture that appears so gloomy is, yet, extremely positive in Jesus' life as it is the eminent moment of revelation because it is precisely through the suffering, passion and humiliation of the Christ that God will manifest his infinite love for humankind. Furthermore, within the journey towards this "hour," Jesus manifests his divinity and, at the same time, God will be glorified by Jesus.

Today's Reading / La lectura de hoy

Acts 14:21-27
Psalm 145:8-9, 10-11, 12-13
Revelation 21:1-5a
John 13:31-33a, 34-35

Liturgia de hoy

Evangelio: p. Damien Dougherty, O.F.M.

Jesús consume el banquete en el contexto de la historia y la liturgia del judaísmo y, hacia el final de la comida, toma una porción de comida, la sumerge en la salsa y se la entrega a Judas. Dentro de las costumbres de la época, este gesto fue un acto de estima del jefe de la mesa para honrar al amigo o huésped ilustre que había sido invitado a la comida. Por parte de Jesús, la oferta del bocado es un regalo de amor para Judas para confirmar la elección que el Maestro había hecho al llamarlo al apostolado junto con los otros discípulos. En lugar de percibir su profundo significado, Judas aprovecha la oportunidad inmediata para lograr la traición que ya ha comenzado.

John, que siempre está atento a los detalles y su significado, ve algo más profundo en el momento en que Judas optó por abandonar la habitación superior. En contraste con la oscuridad de la noche oscura de la traición y el pecado, "la verdadera luz que ilumina a todos" (Juan 1,9) manifiesta el amor infinito de Dios y revela su propia gloria como la Palabra hecha carne.

Esta misma coyuntura que parece tan sombría es, sin embargo, extremadamente positiva en la vida de Jesús, ya que es el momento eminente de revelación porque es precisamente a través del sufrimiento, la pasión y la humillación de Cristo que Dios manifestará su amor infinito por la humanidad. Además, dentro del viaje hacia esta "hora", Jesús manifiesta su divinidad y, al mismo tiempo, Dios será glorificado por Jesús.

Senior Ministry Save the Date

Senior Ministry at St. Andrew recognizes the isolation many in our parish may feel as either caregiver or those receiving care. Senior Ministry at St. Andrew hopes to connect parishioners to both spiritual and health resources as well as provide social gatherings for our parish Seniors. Thirteen trained volunteer Eucharistic ministers from our congregation are available to bring the Eucharist and or visit with those who cannot get to mass. Please call or email Susan Thomson if you are interested in learning more about how our Senior Ministry team can help you.

EASTER CANDLE:

During the Easter Season the Paschal Candle is placed between the font and the Ambo where the Word of God is proclaimed. It is lit each time the people of God gather during the Easter Season. The Easter Candle has always had a connection with the Easter Vigil. It is during the Vigil that the candle was solemnly lit from the Easter fire. In former times the Paschal Candle was extinguished with great solemnity after the Gospel on the feast of Ascension Thursday. That ritual was a way of dramatizing the fact that the lighted candle represented the presence of the Risen Lord now ascended to the Father. Today, there is no such ceremony. In fact the Paschal Candle is used throughout the year. It has a special significance at Baptisms and Funerals because the focus of both these events is on the new life that we share in the Risen Christ. Many churches burn it at all the Masses during the month of November as we remember those who have died. The Paschal Candle should be a reminder of the promise of Jesus: "Where two or three are gathered in my name, there I am in the midst of them."

Art Luther Memorial Servcie

The cost of our signature meal "Chili Mac and Green Salad" is $77, less than $1.00 per person. This temporary winter shelter will stay open through May and possibly longer. If you are interested in helping cook or shop please contact the Community Center Director, Lisa Hatten.
