St. Andrew Welcoming Statement

St. Andrew is a faith community baptized into one body, which honors and celebrates diversity. We welcome and include persons of every color, language, ethnicity, origin, ability, sexual orientation, gender expression, marital status, and life situation.

Parish Mission

St. Andrew Parish recognizes that, as Jesus Christ was sent by God to "bring the good news to the poor, to proclaim liberty to captives,and to the blind new sight, to set the downtrodden free, to proclaim the Lord's year of favor," (Luke 4:18) ....so it is the mission of St. Andrew Parish to be a visible presence of Christ in our culturally and racially diverse neighborhood, rooted in the Gospel and nurtured by liturgy, prayer, and the community of faith. As such we commit ourselves to work with the poor, the powerless, and the oppressed for the liberation of all; to seek justice, compassion, and peace in our lives, community, and world; and to proclaim and celebrate God's unconditional love for all.

Declaración de bienvenida

La Parroquia de San Andrés es una comunidad bautizada en un cuerpo, que honra y celebra la diversidad. Acogemos a las personas de todos colores, lenguas, razas, origenes, habilidades, orientación sexual, estado civil y estilos de vida.

Misíon Parroquial

La Parroquia de San Andrés reconoce que, así como Jesús fue enviado por Dios"para traer la Buena Nueva a los pobres, para anunciar libertad a los cautivos, y a los ciegos nueva luz. Poner en libertad a los oprimidos y proclamar el año de gracia del Señor,"(San Lucas 4:18) ...También es la misión de la Parroquia de San Andrés, el ser presencia visible de Cristo en nuestra comunidad con diversidad de razas y culturas, enraizada en el Evangelio y alimentada por la liturgia, la oración, y la comunidad de fe. Como iglesia, nos comprometemos a trabajar con los pobres, los desamparados y oprimidos,por la liberación de todos; para buscar justicia, compasión, paz en nuestras vidas, en la comunidad y en el mundo entero, y para proclamar y celebrar el amor incondicional de Dios para todos.

Today's Liturgy

On the cusp of fame, power, or influence, would you turn it down? Today's Gospel again features John the Baptist. Controversial but popular, John has gathered quite a group of followers. He has disciples. People come from near and far to be baptized by him. Pharisees and government leaders are drawn to his preaching. If John was another man, a lesser man, he would have claimed his own greatness. Instead, John the Baptist is a witness to humility.

"The next day he saw Jesus coming toward him and said, 'Behold the Lamb of God … he is the one of whom I said, "A man is coming after me who ranks ahead of me."… the reason why I came baptizing with water was that he might be made known.'" Rather than point to himself, John points to Christ. John could have grasped at what he had accumulated. He could have seen Jesus as a Messianic competitor. Instead, John knows who he is. He knows his place as forerunner. Because John knows who Jesus is. "I have seen and testified that he is the Son of God."

A life of humility, a life for others, can be challenging to live. So much of our culture is built around achievement and individualism. We can justify it, too, in pursuit of "greater goods" and higher ideals. In the process, however, we might miss our own participation in the kingdom of God. John, for all of his humility, was not an afterthought. In another Gospel passage, Jesus calls him "the greatest prophet," even the greatest of men. Why? Because he fulfills the mission given to him by God: to announce the coming of the Messiah. We too are prophets and forerunners. Our witness to the Gospel is meant to point people to Jesus. Consider your own mission this week. To whom are you called to announce the good news of the Son of God?

Liturgia de hoy

El anuncio profético de Juan Bautista continua; el domingo pasado con la Fiesta del Bautismo del Señor él decía no merecer desatarle las correas de sus sandalias. Hoy, anuncia otra importante profecía: "Este es el Cordero de Dios, el que quita el pecado del mundo." Y el Evangelio continúa narrando la grandeza del Hijo de Dios por medio de Juan, quedando su testimonio hasta nuestros días: "Aquel sobre quien veas que baja y se posa el Espíritu Santo, ese es el que ha de bautizar con el Espíritu Santo." Juan rebela que Jesús es el Cordero de Dios que será sacrificado para el perdón de todos los pecados del mundo y que Él es Dios que bautizará con el Espíritu Santo. También el Evangelio revela dos cosas importantes sobre el Bautismo: el Bautismo con agua nos lava, limpia del pecado, el Bautismo con el Espíritu Santo nos ayuda a conocer íntimamente quien es Jesús. Los Sacramentos son misterios que nos ayudan a relacionarnos y conocer al Cordero de Dios.

La catequesis por aprender de la Liturgia de hoy es que el Bautismo no es un simple evento ritual que hacen los padres al bautizar a sus hijos. Sino que es el inicio de la jornada de toda la vida; es el proceso de conversión de cada bautizado. En la Eucaristía, afirmamos nuestra fe en el Cordero de Dios cuando el sacerdote dice, "Este es el Cordero de Dios, que quita el pecado del mundo. Dichosos los invitados a la cena del Señor." ¿Qué relación existe entre el Cordero de Dios y nuestro Bautismo?©LPi

Today: Martin Luther King, Jr. Award Recipients Honored

Each year, St. Andrew parishioners nominate individuals in the parish and in the largercommunity to receive service awards in the name and spirit of the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.

An MLK award committee thoughtfully reviews these nominations in each of two categories, looking for individuals who exemplify a commitment to: "work with the poor, the powerless, and the oppressed for the liberation of all; to seek justice, compassion and peace in our lives,community and the world; and to proclaim and celebrate God's unconditional love for all."

Brief profiles of this year's winners are published in today's bulletin.

Thanks to everyone who submitted a nomination.
.We invite any parishioner who is interested in working with us on the committee to contact Committee Chairpersons, John and Korinna Wolfe at teamwolfe6@msn.com

Religious Education News

We have a parent meeting Sunday, January 26th at 11am. Location TBD.

For more information about any of this please contact April Sandoval at asandoval@archdpdx.org or 503.281.4429.

Catholic Schools Week

We begin the celebration of Catholic Schools Week at the end of January. This is one of the ways the church affirms its commitment to children. The Catholic schools exist to assist the parents in their duty of passing on their faith to their children. The schools provide an atmosphere in which the same ethics and morals are taught as are taught and modeled in the home. The schools assist and support the parents in their vocation as parents. The parents are the primary teachers of their children and their actions are the prime examples the children witness.

Pray for Christian Unity

The week of prayer for Christian unity is January 18-25. The theme chosen for 2014 is Has Christ been divided? (1 Corinthians 1:13) Sponsored by The Pontifical Council for Promoting Christian Unity The Commission on Faith and Order of the World Council of Churches. Begun in 1908, these days have been set aside each year so that Christians the world over may share the prayer of Jesus: "that all may be one... that the world may believe" (John 17:21). For more information go to https://geii.org/week_of_prayer_for_christian_unity/theme_announcement_2020.html

Ecumenical Sunday

ECUMENICAL SUNDAY: Today is Ecumenical Sunday when we celebrate what God is doing through the many ecumenical agencies—local, regional, national and international—that make up the modern ecumenical movement. As we continue our special prayers "that all may be one... that the world may believe" (John 17:21), we take time to familiarize ourselves with the work that (insert the name of one or more agencies) does to promote understanding and cooperation among Christians and others in our community.

Society of St. Vincent de Paul / St. Andrew

Emergency Services Statistics for December 2019:

273 families (970 individuals) received food from Emergency Services: 12,006 lbs. of food. We partnered with ten families to help with utility bills ($1815.26) and with eleven families to help with rent ($3532.09). We also helped a client with emergency storage ($182). Total assistance this month: $5529.35. 63 volunteers worked a total of 355 hours in December.

Note: These figures include the Christmas Food Drive statistics.

All donations to the St. Andrew Conference of St. Vincent de Paul support those in need in our community. Please write checks to St. Vincent de Paul/St. Andrew to ensure your donation goes to emergency services of our parish.

Baptistry

Baptism is the first and most important step on our journey into the life we have in Christ. Each time we come in to church, we should be reminded in some way that it was through the sacrament of Baptism that we became part of God's family. At one time baptisteries were built in a separate building near the entrance. These days they are frequently constructed just inside the main doors. Each time you come into the church you dip your hand into the holy water of life. The whole point of blessing ourselves as we come into the church has always been to remind ourselves of the life we share through Baptism. Many churches which do not have the baptismal font in that location provide small holy water fonts to maintain the connection between baptism and entry into the church. The Sunday celebrations which use the sprinkling of holy water as part of the gathering rite also remind us of our common Baptism which unites us as Christ's Body assembled for worship.

Gifts for the Poor

Please bring non-perishable food, diapers, and toiletry items and drop them in the St. Vincent de Paul barrels in the entryway of the church each Sunday. You are encouraged to place one of your items in the basket that is held at the ambo during the preparation of the gifts.

Ordinary Time

ORDINARY TIME: The color green in the church tells us that we are back in Ordinary Time. Actually the word "ordinary" does not mean routine but "counted" or "ordinal" time. We enter into these 2nd, 3rd, 4th Sundays ... all counted one after another. Winter Ordinary Time is just a few short weeks until we enter into the season of Lent. Summer and Fall Ordinary Time comprises the longest portion of the Liturgical Year, covering as much as six months of the Calendar. Ordinary Time challenges us with the demands of building the reign of God. We listen to the Word of God which keeps reminding us of our call as Christians to internalize the teachings of the Lord and to live out what we proclaim. The miracles and the parables of Jesus are, for the most part, the subject of the Gospel readings. The task that we are given is the same task Jesus had—to proclaim the reign of God in our midst—so this is hardly an ordinary mission. The prayers of the Eucharist ask for the gifts necessary to accomplish this task and they carry the same message: "Bring forth the Reign of God!"
