

Iglesia Católica de St. Andrew San Andrés Catholic Church

The first gathering of the Laudato Si - On Care for Our Common Home discussion groups on March 1st. The discussion groups will meet today at 11 AM. All are welcome.

St. Andrew Welcoming Statement

St. Andrew is a faith community baptized into one body, which honors and celebrates diversity. We welcome and include persons of every color, language, ethnicity, origin, ability, sexual orientation, gender expression, marital status, and life situation.

Parish Mission

St. Andrew Parish recognizes that, as Jesus Christ was sent by God to “bring the good news to the poor, to proclaim liberty to captives, and to the blind new sight, to set the downtrodden free, to proclaim the Lord’s year of favor,” (Luke 4:18)so it is the mission of St. Andrew Parish to be a visible presence of Christ in our culturally and racially diverse neighborhood, rooted in the Gospel and nurtured by liturgy, prayer, and the community of faith. As such we commit ourselves to work with the poor, the powerless, and the oppressed for the liberation of all; to seek justice, compassion, and peace in our lives, community, and world; and to proclaim and celebrate God’s unconditional love for all.

Declaración de bienvenida

La Parroquia de San Andrés es una comunidad bautizada en un cuerpo, que honra y celebra la diversidad. Acogemos a las personas de todos colores, lenguas, razas, orígenes, habilidades, orientación sexual, estado civil y estilos de vida.

Misión Parroquial

La Parroquia de San Andrés reconoce que, así como Jesús fue enviado por Dios “para traer la Buena Nueva a los pobres, para anunciar libertad a los cautivos, y a los ciegos nueva luz. Poner en libertad a los oprimidos y proclamar el año de gracia del Señor,” (San Lucas 4:18) ...También es la misión de la Parroquia de San Andrés, el ser presencia visible de Cristo en nuestra comunidad con diversidad de razas y culturas, enraizada en el Evangelio y alimentada por la liturgia, la oración, y la comunidad de fe. Como iglesia, nos comprometemos a trabajar con los pobres, los desamparados y oprimidos, por la liberación de todos; para buscar justicia, compasión, paz en nuestras vidas, en la comunidad y en el mundo entero, y para proclamar y celebrar el amor incondicional de Dios para todos.

Today's Liturgy

We give the definition of ourselves over to so many things. We allow our society, friends, family, work, social groups, ethnicity, and even institutions define, classify, and color how we perceive ourselves. When we listen predominantly to the voices of others, we lose touch with what is happening within our own inner voice. If we listen carefully within, we can easily discover that we are in want and need. We know our incompleteness and also know that loneliness, sadness, and self-images can propel us outward in attempts to fill those gaps. We can become not only victims of our own prejudices but can find ourselves overly self-indulgent in things that can only satisfy for a short time, if at all.

It is no wonder that money and power are things that are so fervently sought after. As long as we can keep a steady supply going, the illusion of fulfillment and satisfaction can falsely persuade us as craftily as a master magician's act. We live with illusions not truth. It is no wonder, then, that some of the wealthiest folks are also really the unhappiest. Whether we admit it, the lies we live and pursue will ultimately expose our superficiality. We all have to wrestle with who we are and what gives our lives purpose and meaning. Learn to listen more deeply, not to what others are saying about you, but to what God is echoing in your heart.

We can easily get confused and misunderstand, not only about who we are but who God is. Even the disciples and the Samaritan woman at the well missed the point Jesus was trying to make. There is only one Person who can satisfy the deepest yearnings and longings of our hearts — Jesus the Messiah. It is not the work of corporate America that will lead us to happiness or greatness but the work of the soul. We continue to resist acknowledging this and are happier in our world of misunderstanding and illusion. The life-giving water we truly need doesn't come from the source of a well but from the Source of Life. Only God can reveal the truth of our sinfulness, the superficiality of our pursuits, and the illusions we hold so dear. Only Jesus can save us from ourselves and give us what we really need. If only our heads can catch up with where our hearts know they need to be, then will we find real contentment and life! ©LPi

Liturgia de hoy

En este tercer Domingo de Cuaresma, Jesús es el pozo de agua viva que guía a la mujer samaritana a profundizar en el Espíritu y en la verdad. También, guía a los discípulos a profundizar en su misión para recibir la cosecha que ya está lista. Alabanza, misión y creer que Cristo es el camino hacia la vida eterna. ¡Todos, este Domingo necesitamos de tomar de esa agua viva que es Cristo! “Señor, dame de esa agua, y así ya no sufriré la sed ni tendré que volver aquí a sacar agua.” (Juan 4:15)

El Papa Francisco nos ilumina con la siguiente homilía:

“Jesús, habla de un agua diversa... el agua que dona la vida eterna fue infundida en nuestros corazones en el día de nuestro bautismo, ahora Dios nos ha transformado y llenados de su gracia. Pero puede darse que hayamos olvidado este gran don, o reducido a un mero dato, y quizá vamos en busca de ‘pozos’ aunque no nos sacian la sed. [El Evangelio es para nosotros.] Jesús nos habla como a la samaritana. Ciertamente nosotros ya lo conocemos, pero quizá no lo hemos acogido personalmente, y no lo hemos todavía reconocido como nuestro Salvador. Este tiempo de Cuaresma es la ocasión buena para acercarse a él, encontrarlo en la oración en un dialogo corazón a corazón, ver su Rostro en el rostro de un hermano o de una hermana sufriente. De este modo podemos renovar en nosotros la gracia del bautismo, saciarnos en la fuente de la Palabra de Dios y de su Santo Espíritu, es así descubrir la gloria de convertirnos en artífices de reconciliación instrumentos de paz en la vida cotidiana.”

¿Qué piensas de esta homilía del Papa? ©LPi

Hunger in Our World

MEET YVONE: Meet Yvone from Kenya. She learned proper nutrition and hygiene practices to help keep her healthy and in school. Yvone now has a chance to dream and the strength to follow those dreams. How can you ensure that young people in your community receive proper nutrition? Visit csrceibowl.org for more.

Liturgy Insights

Penitential Rite: The elect go through three scrutinies, one on each of the last three Sundays of Lent, the third, fourth, and fifth Sundays. The candidates for Confirmation and Eucharist have only one scrutiny called the Penitential Rite, which is usually celebrated on the Second Sunday of Lent. As with all the rites for the already baptized, their baptismal status is recognized. They are called to further conversion to continue their preparation so they can complete their initiation at Easter. Their celebration of the sacraments of initiation is to be at a different time from that of the elect, but a combined rite is available for use at pastoral discretion.

Lent: All Parish Book Reading and Discussion

All parishioners are invited to read On Care for Our Common Home Laudato Si', Pope Francis' encyclical letter. We'll have discussion groups in the Community Center from 11 to 12:15 on March 15th (chapters 3-4), and 29th (chapters 5-6).

The Ecojustice team is leading this event and invites youth to participate and take action for Lent rather than or in addition to giving something up.

Childcare will be provided in the Oscar Romero Room We'll be showing "The Lorax" movie. Juice and snacks will be provided.

Vacation Bible Camp Volunteers Needed

Vacation Bible Camp has been an integral part of the St. Andrew community for 11 years. It is a week of art, music, spiritual exploration and community building. This program serves youth ages 3-7. We are looking for a core group of volunteers to help with camp and to shape goals and theme for this upcoming summer. If you are interested in volunteering or have questions about the camp please call April Sandoval at 503.3583563 or asandoval@archdpdx.org.

Use Spirituality to Enliven your Ally Skills for Talking about Race

Do you struggle as a white person, to have honest and productive conversations about race with white friends, relatives, neighbors and community members?

In August, Dr. David Campt, a dialogue teacher who founded the Ally Conversation Toolkit, and St. Andrew member Angela Kremer taught a workshop to help white racial justice allies have more effective encounters with racism skeptics and Angela is now offering to facilitate follow up sessions. Racism skeptics are people who don't think racism is real or still an issue and many white people know family members or others who fit this and St. Andrew members share a commitment to use their voice and listening for healing. Learn concrete skills for using your own racial background as a tool to advance racial equity over the next three months on Sundays 11 to 1 PM at St Andrews. Two 2 hour follow up sessions are on March 29th and April 19th. (Workbook $30) Register: angelahkremer@gmail.com or 503-890-3071. No one will be turned away for lack of funds. Practice partners will be used to build St. Andrew racial justice ally community.
